

PROVEN READING RESULTS USING THE

Tri-Fold Reading Approach

Early Education ages 18mo. - 3yr

Working on auditory processing and phonemic awareness.

Beginning the Tri-Fold Reading Approach at a young age will allow your child to master the auditory processing and phonemic awareness at the end of Pre-K being able to start the phonics lessons in Tri-Fold Reading Approach in Kindergarten.

Preparatory Pre-K

Mastery in auditory processing and phonemic awareness.

Upon completion of pre-k students will be able to

1. Recognize upper and lower case letters (reading)
2. Write upper and lower case letters (writing/spelling)
3. Discriminate between beginning and ending sounds of words through the auditory processing they have learned.

Students then begin reading, writing, spelling using the

Tri-Fold Reading Approach

Kindergarten

Phonetic reading, writing, and spelling program using the

Tri-Fold Reading Approach

Upon completing the Kindergarten program students will be able to:

1. Identify short vowel blends
2. Identify long vowel blends
3. Identify beginning consonant blends

Completing Kindergarten students will have the ability to decode unknown words and have the ability to read write and spell above of their peers. On the average students are reading at the beginning of 2nd grade reading level upon completion of Kindergarten at

CP Preparatory School

1st-3rd grade Learning Solutions

Phonetic reading, writing, and spelling program using the

Tri-Fold Reading Approach

Students are assessed on their individual needs for reading skills. Individual programs are developed to help students with reading success. The following phonics are taught to ensure reading success to the child's full potential.

1. double vowel blends
2. "r" controlled blends
3. contractions
4. Prefixes
5. Suffixes
6. Abbreviations
7. Letter patterns same and different
8. Synonyms
9. Antonyms
10. Homonyms
11. Reading comprehension
12. Main Idea
13. Cause and effect
14. Fact and detail
15. Context clues

In addition to reading and spelling we also monitor the writing process very closely introducing them to the stages of writing, including grammar and proper sentence structure.

Upon the completion of the Tri-Fold Reading Approach your child will be a confident, independent, reader, writer and speller. Reading 1-2 years above grade level or higher (reading levels vary for individual students with learning difference.)

Giving Your Child The Gift Of Reading Will Last A Life Time!